Naturopathic Doctors in Saskatoon - Chiropractor and Naturopath Richard Bartlett first developed during the year 1997, a transformative healing system called Matrix Energetics after experiencing a life-altering event. Dr. Bartlett discovered that he could restore spiritual, mental, emotional and physical balance in patients with light touching with focused intent. As an added extra, he can correct misalignments that had troubled a few of his clients for many years. Richard discovered that he could teach anybody this particular technique which combines subtle energy with quantum physics, focused intent, and active imagination.

The physical body is a resonating matrix of information within the biological field. According to Matrix energetics philosophy, the patterns in the resonating matrix can become transformed from physical or emotional injury. These disruptions can cause embedded perceptions or habits that can block an individual from reaching a condition of prosperity, health, happiness and several positive situations. Matrix Energetics works to eliminate blockages, shift these ingrained patterns and change core beliefs so as to enable the client to attain their goals so as create the type of life and quality of life preferred.

Matrix Energetics practitioners think that the restrictions are the cause of a person's issues and that the healing system of Matrix Energetics could immediately remove these limitations. This healing system is believed to get rid of the sources of both chronic and temporary problems such as fibromyalgia, emotional trauma, headaches, muscle spasms and scoliosis amongst others.

The Matrix Energetics system is intended to stand alone. Various practitioners utilize it to be able to improve several healing methods even if it does not need to be at all combined together with whatever other practice. A single session with a Matrix Energetics practitioner can transform the belief system of the client and can transform her or his beliefs about the healing process, the structure of reality and the nature of disease. Normally, recipients can feel a wave pass all through their bodies since their previous view of realism is altered and this is where the Matrix Energetics system enters into the realm of quantum physics.

Space and time are not a part of reality at the quantum level. An individual's consciousness could have an effect on how subatomic particles behave, according to the quantum theory. Because the universe is interconnected with quanta, or tiny wave particles of information, which could be transferred at a rate faster than the speed of light, these quanta can appear everywhere simultaneously and also move backward or forward in time. A person's consciousness could have an effect on these quanta to change emotions and physical matter. These views and this particular information have been integrated into the Matrix Energetics treatments and are accountable for the changes that occur on the cellular level within the person.
